

Fred G. Hopkins, AIA

LEED AP BD+C

principal + architecture

As the Technical Director at SMBW, Fred Hopkins often serves as the Senior Project Manager for large projects. His work includes leadership roles in SMBW's most technically challenging projects, including several historic renovations and building envelope repair projects. His project engagement includes assistance with forensic investigations to determine leak paths of air and moisture infiltrations, development/review of repair and replacement details, and construction administration and observation.
