

Taylor Clark, AIA

LEED GA

architecture

Extensive project experience and top notch credentials make Taylor a welcome asset to any team. Taylor explores each project's context as part of concept creation and weaves together one detail and material at a time, always keeping in mind the big picture. No stranger to large scale projects, Taylor finds value in each stakeholder outlook and works to marry all viewpoints to a common solution, while maintaining the design vision.

CONTEXTUAL STORY TELLER

Education

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University
Master of Architecture, 2010
Washington-Alexandria Architecture Center, 2009
Center for European Studies and Architecture, 2008

University of Virginia
Bachelors of Arts, 2005

Previous Experience

Walter Parks Architects
Richmond, VA
Shinberg.Levinas Architecture
Washington, DC
Perkins + Will
Washington, DC

Memberships + Registrations

Registered Architect, VA
Virginia AIA
ELA Steering Committee
COTEdc Environment Committee
Secretary 2013, AIAdc

Honors + Awards

Emerging Leaders in Architecture
Virginia Society AIA, 2015
Finalist, KRob Memorial
Delineation Competition
Dallas AIA, 2010

PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS

Academic

Paul Public Charter School*
Washington, DC

Civic

Greater Richmond Convention Center
Richmond, VA
RVA Arena Study
Richmond, VA

Corporate

Bill + Melinda Gates Foundation*
Washington, DC
Capital One 1717 Innovation Center
Richmond, VA
Capital One Power Up
Richmond, VA
CoStar Group Offices*
Multiple Locations
S&P Global Initiative
Charlottesville, VA

Research

Virginia Tech Corporate Research Center
Applied Projects - Research Building 1311
Blacksburg, VA

Residential

Proctor Residence
Powhatan, VA
American Tobacco*
Richmond, VA
Five50
Richmond, VA
River's Edge Condominiums*
Sleepy Hollow, NY

*project represents previous experience